MEMORANDUM FOR: Colonel White

FOIAB5

1. This memorandum on inclusion of differentials in lump-sum leave payments recommends that "it might be desirable for the Office of the General Counsel to determine whether

2. The specific issue on which we want recommendations is whether or not we should include differentials as "additional compensation" in the computation of lump-sum leave payments:

- a. For employees paid from vouchered funds who serve in U. S. territories.
- b. For employees paid from vouchered funds who serve in foreign areas.
- c. For employees paid from unvouchered funds who serve in U. S. territories.
- d.

3. From the information available, the answer in each case would appear to be that we should not. However, Mr. Warner indicated that you ~~would~~ <sup>may</sup> want to take this up directly, yourself, with Personnel.

*Col. White.
My reasoning was simply that this is a fair example of incomplete
staff work of which you would wish to discuss with H. Nelson.*
